ALASKA'S WRONGS.

Outrages Upon Defenseless Natives by Americans

PUNISHMENT IS NEEDED

An Out of the Way Corner of Uncle Sam's Domain Where Law is Inoperative —The Navy Called On to Set Things Right

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10—The interior department is in receipt of a rather bulky budget of correspondence from the governor of Alaska. A priest and missionary in that country in a letter to the Governor of Alaska dated Kenai, Aug. 1, 1891, states that near that place there is a cannery belonging to the Northern Packing company which employs a number of Americans who have committed outrages upon the natives. At night under the influence of liquor it is stated that they break into the houses of the natives and drive the male members of the families out or beat them nearly to death. One of the natives who was beaten has since died. The letter further states that to avoid these outrages the natives have left their houses and have secluded themselves. The priest in his letter says that on night last spring two drunken Americans employed at the cannery broke into the house and one, named Andrews, attempted to kill an elder of the church, who lived with him, because he would not open the door for them. The priest pacified the ruffian, who in conversation advised the priest not to interfere under penalty of death. The correctness of the statement is certified to by George Keronlanoff, the inspector for the United States district court of Alaska.

Upon this appeal of the priest Governor Kinkaid informed Lieutenant-commander Maynard, commanding the U. S. S. Pinto, stationed in Alaskan waters, of the outrages upon the natives by the Americans and certified that the civil government had not the facilities to afford relief and investigate the matter, and asked if the Pinto could go to the scene of the outrages and aid in apprehending the criminals and protect the victims. Commander Maynard in answer said in his judgment it would be extremely hazardous to attempt to make the trip to Kenai. The matter will receive prompt attention and steps will be taken to have an investigation made.

An Atrocious Deed.

VIENNA, Dec. 11.—A tragedy unparalleled in atrocity is reported from Wieselberg, a town of Hungary, twenty-one miles from Presburg. Sixteen years ago the son of a poor peasant living in the county of which Wieselburg is the capital went to America. There, by industry, he gradually saved up about $3,000 in American money. Resolving to return to his father's home, the son on his way changed his money into the compact form of English sovereigns, of which he had 600. It was late when he arrived at his father's home. He did not immediately make himself known, but asked for hospitality as a stranger. The mother was not there at the moment, but the father recognized his son through the disguise of years and embraced him. The son, being weary, retired to rest, after telling his father of the little fortune he had brought home with him. The son had the money in a bag near the bed. The father did not tell the mother when she came home of who the stranger was, nestling to wait until morning and then let the son reveal himself to the joy and surprise of the mother. The latter got up during the night and examined the stranger's baggage, and finding the gold, a larger sum than she had ever dreamed of, determined to possess it. The husband and father slept on. The mother stealthily got a knife and cut the throat of the stranger, killing him instantly. Then she took and hid the gold. When the father awoke he found his son in a pool of blood on the bed. His cry of anguish and horror aroused the wife who had expected to find her husband a ready accomplice in concealing the crime for the sake of the money. The father gasped out who the victim was. With one cry the murderess reeled and fell dead.

The Graves Trial.

DENVER, Dec. 10.—Immediately after Judge Rising had ordered court convened in the Graves' trial the prosecution put Dr. J. A. Sewell of Denver University on the stand. The doctor is the one who performed the analysis of the viscera in the famous Millington trial. He had also made an analysis of the bottle of liquid presented him by Dr. Holmes and Mr. Worrell, jr., some of which, it is alleged caused the death of Mrs. Josephine Kunsby. He found this liquid contained 2½ per cent. of arsenic (arsenite of potassium) and 11.21 per cent. of alcohol, and judging from the analysis the bottle contained 192 grains of arsenic and no whisky at all. He stated that after concluding his examination he delivered the bottle to Detective McParland of the Pinkerton agency. He exhibited to the jury the result of his analysis and also the results of a preliminary test in a glass tube.

On cross-examination the doctor stated that the bottle was what is commonly called a 16-ounce bottle, and when received by him contained about eleven ounces of the liquid. "I was not informed as to what had become of the other five ounces and returned the bottle to Mr McParland upon the order of the district attorney."

Here Mr. McParland entered with the bottle.

Mr McParland was sworn. He said he obtained the bottle from Dr Sewell on Mr Stevens' order in May last. Witness said he was the Denver superintendent of the Pinkerton agency. After he received the bottle he delivered it to Professor Haines in Chicago. The latter took some of its contents and he resealed it and brought it before the grand jury. There the seal was broken because some of its members desired to smell and taste of its contents. Again he took it to Chicago and it was again examined by Dr Haines and resealed.

On cross examination Judge Macon asked Mr McParland if he did not have expert chemists in his employ who might have sealed the drawer containing this bottle and poured with its contents. The witness emphatically denied any such intimation. The bottle was then introduced as evidence and passed around among the jurors and lawyers, nearly all of whom smelled of it, putting a little upon their fingers rubbing it over their tongue, and with a wry face smacked their lips in their endeavor to determine whether or not it was a very good quality of "Fine old whisky from your cellars in the mountains."

Dr Sewell was recalled and his cross-examination continued. In reply to Judge Macon's question the doctor said he had made the analysis by the Marsh test and that he had looked for mercury or some corrosive substance, but instead of getting in results he got copper and arsenic. Here the witness described the way an analysis for arsenic was made.

In defense then attempted to have the witness admit that the Marsh test was unreliable, but he would not do so. He admitted that he had told the result of his work to Mr. McParland soon after he had concluded it.

Upon redirect examination he stated that antimony could readily be taken for arsenic, and if the two drugs were seen together, the antimony was not readily discovered in the sample. In the porcelain dish he saw the stain of arsenic he tested the stain and proved that it was arsenic. If he had used Marsh's test without any other test he would not be sure of the results of this test. There are other tests to ascertain the correctness of Marsh's test.

Dr Sewell was excused and Prof Walter S. Haines, who also figured in the Millington case, was called to the stand. He said he was a professor of chemistry in the Rush Medical college, Chicago, and had been in that profession nine years. Besides, he was a consulting physician to the Chicago health department. He stated that he was frequently called upon to examine bodies and food for poison. He had examined a score of human bodies for poison and over 100 specimens of food. In June last Mr McParland gave him a flask for an analysis. He identified the fatal bottle as the bottle from which the fluid was poured. He made analysis by four different tests namely, those of Marsh, and his results were the same as Dr Sewell's.

Judge Macon objected to the witness being allowed to testify to the analysis for the reason that at the time it was made Dr Graves had been indicted and was under arrest and had a right to be represented at the analysis when it was not done. The matter was argued until 2 o'clock when Judge Rising overruled the objection and an exception was taken. Professor Haines, who made an examination of the viscera and other organs of the dead man, testified to the finding of arsenic in sufficient quantities to cause death. At the close of the direct examination court adjourned until to-morrow.

A Taste of Freedom.

DENVER, Dec. 10—The notorious Mike Ryan made a big attempt to escape from the county jail today. Ryan is now under sentence to serve fifty years in the penitentiary for drugging and robbing a countryman of $5,000 and was in jail in default of $40,000 bonds awaiting the decision of the court on his motion for a new trial. Ryan was taken into court this morning by deputy Sheriff Cummings to hear Judge Hunt's decision on his motion. Ryan's wife was present and wept bitterly as Ryan was taken into the Judge's chambers. There he requested deputy Sam Phillips to whom Cummings had surrendered him to go in and talk to his wife to tell her not to cry. Phillips did go and while so engaged Ryan walked out of the room, jumped into Tim Connor's buggy, which for some unexplained cause was standing at the door and fled. Officers were after him soon and after an hour's chase Ryan was captured near the town of Arvada. Connors was Ryan's partner and was also indicted for the robbery but is now out on bail.

The Worst Storm Yet.

LONDON, Dec. 10—The gale which set in last night has already done an immense amount of damage and has been attended with a number of fatalities. The gale at the present, 1.30 p. m., shows no signs of abatement. On the contrary it seems to grow in violence as it grows older. Reports are being received from all parts of the country, and they all concur in stating the present gale is more severe than any of its predecessors.

At Dorrington in Shropshire the chimney of an inn was blown down. The falling bricks crashed through the roof and fell upon the landlord and his wife. The man was killed and his wife fatally injured.

In the channel the gale is blowing with great fury and a very heavy sea is running. It is certain that disaster will overtake many craft that have not been able to make a harbor of refuge.

Rioting in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 10. There has been and is at present much rioting going on in Tepechilla. It is due to the dissatisfaction of the people with the government. Troops are held in readiness to proceed to the scene of the disorders whenever the government may deem it necessary.

In order to relieve the distress in the city of durango the government is purchasing corn in the United States.

An agent named Scandilo, employed on the Mexican Central railroad, has disappeared. He is said to be a defaulter to a large amount. It is thought that he fled to the United States.

A Convent in Denver

DENVER, Dec. 10.—The new convent of the Sisters of Loretto was formally dedicated this morning by Archbishop Salpoint and Bishop Chappelle, of Santa Fe, Archbishop Riordan, of San Francisco, Bishop Matze, of Denver, and several other prominent prelates. The beautiful building has been occupied nearly a month and nearly 100 young ladies are in attendance. It cost about $300,000. Pontifical mass was celebrated by Bishop Matze, after which the service of dedication was conducted by all priests of the city with the visiting high dignitaries. The procession passed through the entire building reciting the ritual of the church and proclaiming the blessings of God upon the educational efforts of the church.

The Grippe in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 10.—The epidemic of influenza in this city is becoming very pronounced and physicians report hundreds of cases under treatment. City and government physicians, business and professional men and private men are prostrated in many cases. As an instance of the prevalence of the malady it may be stated that nearly half the employes of a wholesale house had to go home at one time because they were suffering from the grippe and ten professors in St. Louis University are under the care of physicians.

A New Mexican Town Burned

SILVER CITY, N. M., Dec. 10.—At 5 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in a vacant frame hotel building in the town of Pinos Altos.

Not a drop of water was accessible and the whole town was soon in flames. Men, women and children turned out to fight the fire, but the dry buildings burned like tinder, destroying nearly the entire town. Only two business houses were saved, they were Bell & Stephens and A. R. Leroy's stores. The loss will reach $100,000, insurance light. The fire is thought to be incendiary.

Mills May be Senator.

GALVESTON, TEX., Dec. 10.—The defeat of Roger Q. Mills for the speakership has given wide-spread support, it is said, to the efforts of his admirers to elect him to the United States senate. Governor Hogg has stated that an extra session of the legislature will be called in March or April. The election of a successor to John H. Reagan will be one of the duties of the body. Senator Chilton holds his appointment from the governor, and although a candidate for election by the legislature, the friends of Mr Mills are said to be confident of electing the tariff reformer.

Descended from Kit Carson

PUEBLO, Dec. 10.—Billy Carson a descendent of the old scout, Kit Carson some years ago married a daughter of William Russell, a ranchman living on the Purgatorie creek. The marriage proved to be an unhappy one and Mrs. Carson returned to her parents' home. This morning Carson went over to the Russell ranch and a quarrel ensued, in which Carson shot the son and the son shot the latter in self-defense and the former dying.

A Doubtful Report

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Secretary Blaine and President Harrison held a long conference yesterday during which Mr. Blaine urged the appointment of Stephen B. Elkins as secretary of war. It is reported upon good authority that if Mr. Elkins gets the war portfolio Mr Blaine will retire from the presidential race in 1892 in favor of Mr. Harrison.

A Justifiable Strike

TUCSON, ARIZ., Dec. 10.—There is not a telegraph operator or station agent along the line of the Southern Pacific from Tucson to Yuma and in the other direction, and but four between this city and El Paso. A strike has been declared. The reason for it is a general refusal to obey an order requiring them to take an oath not to join any telegraphers organization.

A REBEL DEFEAT.

It Happens Among the Chinese Insurgents

SUMMARY DEATH TO RIOTERS

A Fair of Russia Jews Anti-Christian Riots Have Ceased Martial Law Being Enforced in Several Provinces

SHANGHAI, Dec. 10.—It is reported that the Mongolian rebels have met with a hard defeat at the hands of the government troops. Battle of Chinese numbering 15,000 men on each side was fought into deep snow and driven with great slaughter before the imperial troops. The fight lasted all night. Losses not yet known.

Foreigners express the opinion that the rebellion will have a tendency to disperse the Christians for their knowledge that the government is collecting information from rebel sources to the effect that certain Mongolian officers were instigated into rebellion by the anti-Christian sentiments and great hatred of the Chinese authorities.

The Chinese have hastily taken extraordinary precautions in the portion of the empire adjoining Russian territory and the Mongolian frontier. The movement of troops is to present a compact defense to prevent aggressive Russia.

In Hung Chang has ordered the punishment of all who were engaged in the massacre of native Christians at Pien Tsin, and several rioters have been captured and executed. The Pekin government having granted leave for immediate beheading in all such cases.

Europeans are convinced that the anti-Christian riots are caused in many, if not all, cases by the hatred which the upper classes of Chinese bear toward the foreigners, this hatred being grounded on jealousy of foreign intelligence and influence. The literati are the promoters of the disturbances by the aid, letters in advance of the people, with stories about babes being killed, their eyes and lungs taken out for medicine. It is said that the bands the murderers of the Belgian and native Christians carried about the mutilated body of a child in order to further excite the fury of the populace, the body being that of a child of Christian parents, brutally killed by the rioters themselves. It served the purpose of exciting the people and urging them on to further horrors and cruelties. This belief in the child-slaying propensity of the Christians appears to prevail everywhere that the missionaries have penetrated. The secret societies, it is assisted by the missionaries, are not aimed so much at foreigners as at the Chinese government but the mandarins and literati try to give the impression to Europeans that the atrocities for which they are themselves responsible were perpetrated by the societies.

The Situation in Brazil.

RIO JANEIRO, Dec. 10.—The situation here continues critical. The government appears to have put off its apathy and is taking measures to prevent an emeute in the city. Large bodies of heavily armed police are patrolling the streets, and though there are signs of disquiet on every side there has been no overt act on the part of the malcontents in the city.

Advices from Campos, a city of 40,000 inhabitants in the province of Rio Janeiro and 155 miles northeast of this city, show at that place that there has been open revolt against the government. A conflict occurred there on Tuesday last between the government troops and a body of insurgents. The advices are not clear as to which side won the victory, but it is reported that ten men were killed and thirty wounded.

It is difficult to get information as to the spread of the revolutionary movement. While the government does not interfere with press or private dispatches, the authorities are not communicative.

Mass was celebrated yesterday in several of the churches for the repose of the soul of Dom Pedro. Many besides monarchists criticise the lack of respect shown by the government to the memory of the former ruler. It is said that the pension of $120,000 a year voted to Dom Pedro will not be continued to his family.

Much excitement prevails in the city, although order is maintained by the troops and police.

Bank President Arrested.

DENVER, Dec. 10.—Robert Shirey, ex president of the First National bank of Red Cloud, Neb., also manager of the Farmers' Loan association of Webster county, Nebraska, was arrested in this city to-day charged with the embezzlement of $90,000 from the two institutions. Some months ago Shirey was defeated for re-election as the head of the two institutions and shortly afterwards both were found to be insolvent. Shirey came to this city to live. He claimed he lost every dollar he had by the collapse. It is alleged now, however, that he embezzled the sum above mentioned and made false entries to hide the fact.

It Was Not His Head.

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—John Herbert Phillips, the man who claimed to be Martin of Russell Sage and Colonel Slocum as that of the man who hurled a dynamite bomb at the great put and call operator, is in Chicago alive and well. He tells a strange story of envy and fear on the part of certain persons who spread the report that he was the would-be assassin of Russell Sage and threatens to reveal a sensational chapter in the history of a certain bank in New York unless the efforts to discredit him are stopped.

STILL UNPUNISHED.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The identity of the bomb-thrower is still a matter of conjecture. Several people called today, among whom was a car driver named John Kutner, whose manner led the morgue people to believe he knew him. He left a name and said as reluctantly and promised to call again and may be able to tell about the mysterious head.

The Coming Consistory.

ROME, Dec. 10. Cardinals are already gathering for the coming consistory. It is said that the pope, following the example of Pius IX, has prepared exact directions as to the action to be taken in the event of his death, including even minute details of the care and disposition of his body. It is known that the Italian government is to be kept jealously at arm's length, and in no wise allowed to interfere, officially or otherwise, with the papal obsequies.

Desirous of Peace.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11—3 a. m.—A special cablegram to the United Press from Valparaiso, just received, says that the story published in the London Times by its correspondent to the effect that Minister Egan's insulting notes in reference to Chili was the cause of the latter's position to subpoena the legation in Washington, is false in every particular. The cablegram adds that the matter mentioned has not even been discussed by the Chilian government, and that congress is desirous of a continuance of the amicable relations existing between Chili and the United States.

Prohibition in Iowa.

DES MOINES, Dec. 10.—The fate of prohibition in this state is a matter of concern with politicians and people, at the present time and a meeting of the executive committee of the State Temperance alliance was held here today. The results of the meeting is an assurance of an address to the people of the state of Iowa declaring their loyalty to prohibition and expressing belief that the election was not a repudiation of prohibition. The address says that the Republican members of the general assembly cannot go back on the platform on which they were elected and assert that all the votes against Boies were for prohibition votes and that therefore the majority of the state is for prohibition. The address further says that prohibition has been a source of strength to the Republican party and expresses the belief that the constitutional amendment of 1882 was legally adopted and further that the supreme court will finally so declare. The address closes by urging all temperance people to renewed activity in the enforcement of the law.

RAILROAD MEN.

[illegible] Bureau on their Condition

WHERE AND HOW THEY WORK

[illegible] of Trade Unions in Holding Wages Why Clerks Pay is so Small Some Recent Strikes When Day Comes

DENVER, Dec. 10. The labor bureau of [illegible] has just finished the advance sheets of its forthcoming statistics of railways in Colorado. The result discloses the fact that there are 5,500 miles of railway in all, all but a few hundred miles of lines being finished in the state. The assessed valuation of the various lines is $30,000,000. There are 1,800 persons employed in the state in various occupations in the railway service. There is $1,250,000 in cash distributed every year in Colorado as a gratuity to the employes in the various shops.

During the year there have been only two strikes of importance on railways in Colorado. One was the strike of the Burlington switchmen in April 1891, to sustain the Lincoln switchmen. It was unsuccessful. The other was the strike of the Union Pacific brakemen at Trinidad April 1st, for increased pay. It was successful.

Commissioner Boline has made a thorough canvass in compiling the statistics. He says that he has received courteous responses from all railway officials where desired information was needed. The result of the work is that official figures have been obtained. The following is a condensed schedule of the work:

Name of road	Miles of road in Colorado	Number of miles of track	Average number of employes	Amount paid in wages
D. & R. G.	1,[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	$ 1,340,[illegible]

Miscellaneous	[illegible]	2,[illegible]	[illegible]	166,[illegible]
Totals	4,[illegible]	17,[illegible]	$ 10,[illegible]	$ [illegible]

*Applies only to mileage thus far completed. Does not include men employed in construction work.

†In Colorado only.

In the miscellaneous item is included local employes of eastern trunk lines, fast freight lines, etc., that had no local mileage. It includes employes of Union Depot companies of Denver and Pueblo.

The number of persons engaged in one capacity or another with the railway companies of Colorado is a small army in itself. From official sources, namely, the returns made from the various companies, the total number of names upon railway pay rolls in the state amounts to 17,[illegible]. Of this number 3[illegible] are in the train service, such as engineers, firemen, conductors, brakemen, etc.; 4172 are employed as office men, telegraphers, station agents, etc.; 2415 are employed in the various shops and round houses; 2[illegible] are section men, foremen and laborers, and 4[illegible] are engaged in miscellaneous employment, such as bridge carpenters, flagmen, freight handlers, track walkers, inspectors, etc.; 212 females are engaged in clerical work in railway offices.

In addition to the above, and not included in the foregoing, there are 800 men at present engaged in construction work on the Rio Grande Southern.

The railway employes in the train service are well organized. There are forty-two railroad organizations, of all kinds, in the state.

Denver, Pueblo, Leadville, Trinidad, Salida and Colorado City furnish the largest portion of the membership of organized railroad labor. The best wages, as a rule, are paid in branches where labor is organized. Clerical labor is the poorest paid branch of the railway service. The cause of this state of affairs is due to a surplus of young men seeking office work, particularly those from the east who come to Colorado to benefit their health, and offer their services at low figures.

Many railway clerks of splendid ability, whose health becomes shattered in the east, at once prepare to flock to Colorado. In many instances they file their applications before departure from the east, backed up by indorsements of unquestionable worth. The result is a general rivalry that causes standard clerical wages to take a downward tendency. A tour of inquiry revealed the fact that there is a total of 2,177 applications for positions on file at present in all railroad offices combined at Denver, Pueblo, Trinidad, Leadville and Colorado Springs. In some of these cases it is from the best young men of experience at railway desks offer their services from $40 to $75 per month. All the applicants desire to breathe the invigorating, life-giving atmosphere of Colorado, feast their eyes on the scenery and their stomachs at some beanery, and spend what little is left for a small room cloth— and medicine. It is this fact that makes wages lower for clerks than any other branch of labor in Colorado.

The employes of the railroads are paid monthly, generally the 15th of 18th. They are paid upon that date of the month following the month during which services were rendered. Payment is made for the latter month only. In case of discharge before the next pay day the employee is given a time check, which he can get cashed at once.

The total amount of wages disbursed among the employes of all the roads in Colorado every year averages $10,671,340.61. The annual flow of wealth finds its way into the hands of 17,[illegible] employes. As a rule railroad employes spend their money freely.

Engineers are the most thrifty and saving of trainmen. Many railroad men own their homes and are in good financial circumstances. But the great majority of "railroad men" circulate their earnings and are as poor three days after pay day as they were the day preceding it. Generosity constitutes a large portion of the railway employee's heart. Many charitable deeds have been performed by railway men, whose benevolence is proverbial.

The Deaf-Mind Entertainment.

The entertainment given at the state school by the deaf and blind pupils was a full success as regards attendance, and the programme was the most interesting of the many interesting programmes which have been presented in the large assembly hall. The boys and girls had a full fledged stage with footlights and attractive scenery, prepared by Professor Campbell, the art teacher. The stage has recently fastened its hold upon the school and so large a number of those who were to take part were yesterday morning in fear. They had taken too much pains to be thus cheated of their pleasure, however, and so only one substitute appeared. The result, however, had to be kept at a heat which was considerably more than sufficient for the cell occupants. The band opened the two parts of the programme with selections, and did remarkably well in view of the fact that they have learned all that they know about band instruments and music, by ear, in less than a month.

Miss Lettie Young, one of the young lady pupils, with cheerful signs and gestures, told of Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, how he was the first to teach the deaf in this country and what his efforts have shown to. Professor Dudley supplied the words necessary to make this [illegible] to the hearing people present.

A very small little boy, Johnnie Myers, sang a solo about the valiant deeds of a little dog under the wagon, but is not prepared to respond to a hearty encore he received.

A very young feature was a recitation by Professor Vedder and Professor Campbell of the deaf teachers. Mr Vedder told the story in the sign language, and Mr Campbell in his companion so that every word and hands showed, while Mr Campbell spoke the words expressively. The recitation was irresistable. Mr. Vedder illustrated the sign language with the aid of Marc Antony's oration. The exercise of this silent language was shown by Miss Maggie Shad [illegible] Mr. Le Winged Words.

The rising by the [illegible] pupils under Mr Mead sang a base solo which was especially good and which [illegible] hearty encore.

The last piece on the programme was a closing song with a tableau showing the office of the year and an equal number of girls participated. There was very little of the stage fright and every thing go off expressively and it was very nicely done by all for a nicely [illegible].

Some excitement was caused towards the end by the fire bell ringing. It rose in the assembly room to a very considerable extent but Mr Rogers soon restored order without any serious interruption of the programme. After the exercises the audience found cars waiting for them for all parts of town provided by the Rapid Transit company. Another entertainment will be given during Christmas week.

Two Weddings Yesterday

There were two quiet but happy weddings of young people in this city yesterday afternoon. At the residence of Mr and Mrs E. S. Bamstead on North Weber street, occurred the marriage of Mr Harry C. Allward and Miss Charlotte N. Pearson the lady being a niece of Mr and Mrs Bamstead. At the same time occurred the marriage of Mr Fred L. Crissey and Miss Lulu Thomas at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs. P. S. Thomas, on North Corona street. Both weddings were very quiet, only the relatives and most intimate friends being present. Rev Richard Montague officiated at the Allward Pearson wedding and Rev H. E. Warner at the Crissey Thomas wedding. Immediately after the ceremonies the young people who are close friends departed for a visit of a week in Denver, but will return to reside in this city.

Mr Allward is an estimable young man who came to Colorado three years ago from Toronto, Canada, and is a manufacturing jeweler by trade, but at present is employed by Hoag & Bumstead. Mr. Crissey is the eldest son of Mr. Giles Crissey, is an excellent young business man connected with the Crissey & Davis Lumber company. Mrs. Allward and Mrs. Crissey are both Colorado Springs girls who have lived here since early youth and are popular with hosts of friends.

Deaf and Blind Trustees Meet.

The trustees of the State School for Deaf and Blind held their annual meeting at the institution yesterday. The work of the year was looked over and the efficiency and economy of Superintendent Ray's administration was very highly commended. The broom shop was found to be valuable an addition to the industrial department that it was decided to at once purchase ten tons of broom corn, and additional machinery and to employ more workmen to infill. As the boys into the trade. It was also decided to purchase a text book one for the blind and one for the deaf, such a book, thus adding to the capacity for usefulness of the pupils. The school [illegible] of the 19 [illegible] finished to place a piano for the use of the school.

Death of a Philanthropist

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 10. Rev. Oscar C. McCulloch, pastor of Plymouth Congregational church, and one of the greatest philanthropists and charity workers in the west, died at his home in this city this morning aged 48 years. He was at one time president of the National Association of Charities and Correction and presided over its last convention held in this city.

Italy is Pleased.

ROME, Dec. 10.—The tone of President Harrison's message on the New Orleans lynching gives general satisfaction here. Premier Rudini, replying in the chamber today to Signor Cimati, said that he had noted the friendly expressions in the message of President Harrison and was confident that the questions at issue would soon be settled; that if America would so unofficially promise Italy to modify the constitution so as to insure absolute protection for foreigners living in the United States the Italian government would be willing thereafter to regard the lynching case as closed.

A writer who passed some years in Japan says that the first thing to be done in case of earthquake is to open at once all the windows and doors of the house. The reason of this is that the rocking he often shifts the perpendicular of the houses especially when they are of alien build to such an extent that it becomes impossible to open any door or window, and one finds one's self imprisoned like a rat in a cage. After this is done nothing remains but to sit down and wait for the second shock, which is generally the worse of the two. Sometimes there are still others that follow, but according to my experience it is always the second which is the most violent of all.

Whole Families at the Same Ceiling.

Here are a few notable instances of how railroading runs in families. On the Erie and Pittsburg division of the Pennsylvania railroad are five brothers named McDowell, all conductors. There are also five brothers named Fitzmaurice, all engineers. There are also five Peterses, father and four sons, also five Donlins, father and four sons. The Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railway has among its employees Mr. Falor and eight sons.

How Fanny Fern Began.

When Fanny Fern's first husband died she was left quite destitute with two children. Oddly enough she hit upon the idea of supporting them and herself by writing. The only encouragement that she received at first was the return of her manuscripts. Finally the editor of The Olive Branch, a Boston publication, inspired her with some hope by paying her fifty cents for one manuscript. He encouraged her still further by sending her the same munificent sum for another and still another. Hope became joy when she discovered that her articles were widely copied. Then came a demand for her work, and before long she had all that she could do. It was at the height of her reputation, which had extended to Europe and led to the sale of 70,000 copies of her "Fern Leaves" that Mr. Bonner made her the unprecedented offer of a hundred dollars a column to write for The Ledger. S.

No Deception About Him

"Paint me as I am," said Old Oliver Cromwell, "warts and all." The same sort of fierce truthfulness seems to have animated a woman of Atchison, Kan., recently. It is said that, with a desire of giving her husband a faithful picture, she had her photograph taken as she appeared at daily housework, with a baby on one arm and a broom and dustpan on the other.

An Elaborate Bank Note

The most elaborate bank note is the hundred ruble note of Russia, of the time of the Empress Catherine, which is a large piece of paper about four inches by ten. The note is printed from top to bottom with all the colors of the rainbow blended as when thrown through a prism. In the center, in bold relief, is a large, lusty executed vignette of the Empress Catherine, in black.—London Tit-Bits.

FOUR FAMOUS BROTHERS

THEY ARE OLD NOW AND ONE HAS SUFFERED MUCH

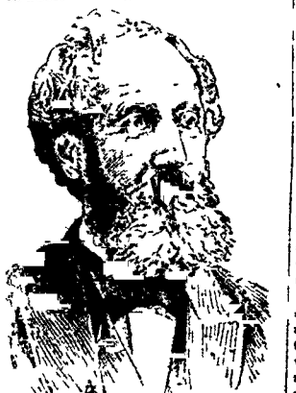
How Dr Field Reared the Boys Who Were to Make the Family Name Noted New England Home Life Under Hard Conditions

[illegible] attention has been attracted to the family of late because of the [illegible] Cyrus W [illegible] and recently and because of the actual [illegible] future of the New York [illegible] Cyrus W Field, Wrechcis & Co [illegible] Mason, Edward M, was the [illegible] er, whose wife died recently a few [illegible] after their golden wedding is [illegible] with illness, one of the daughters is [illegible] insane, another's tenure of [illegible] is insecure, and the bankrupt son [illegible] committed to a madhouse after [illegible] suicide In by the [illegible]

[illegible] Dane

[illegible] a scion of a good old Puritan [illegible] Barbrook Field from whom they [illegible] descent emigrated from Ardsley [illegible] shire about [illegible] first settled [illegible] This was only twelve years [illegible] Mayflower landed the Pilgrim [illegible] who took a prom[illegible] in the great civilizing movement [illegible] the [illegible] had an illustrious ancestor [illegible] Hope is the grandson of John [illegible] who introduced the [illegible] in England in [illegible] of the universe familiar to the [illegible] science of the country Others [illegible] should be [illegible] famous in theology [illegible] Field was an eminent divine and [illegible] chaplain to Queen Elizabeth and King [illegible]

[illegible] Timothy Field the grandfather [illegible] David Dudley, Cyrus W, Stephen J [illegible] and Henry M Field served with distinction under Washington in the Revolution



CYRUS W FIELD

[illegible] David Dudley Field, the father [illegible] the four boys who have become noted in [illegible] affairs, was born May 20, 1781 [illegible] was educated for a clergyman, and before [illegible] at Haddam, Conn, when he was twenty three years old He married [illegible] Submit Dickinson, of Somers, who [illegible] ten children

[illegible] common interest attaches to [illegible] one which reared so famous a family [illegible] parish of Haddam was rough and unattractive the meeting house was a huge [illegible] structure in keeping with the village But the young pastor entered early into his work. His great strength [illegible] vigor of thought were soon lost in the [illegible] His reputation as a preacher spread [illegible] and he was called to deliver sermons on special occasions.

[illegible] mother of the Field boys was a [illegible] helpmeet for this hard working [illegible] The sons never tired of singing [illegible] praises. She was the joy and light [illegible] home," writes one of them. "Whatever success or prosperity has attended [illegible] family has been in a great measure [illegible] her unselfish spirit, which made [illegible] sacrifice for the education of her children to her perpetual buoyancy of [illegible] her womanly patience, courage [illegible] with a salary of $600 and [illegible] children, there was no time for [illegible] luxury or playing the fine lady [illegible] early and late love [illegible] all [illegible] burdens light. Never was [illegible] more continues this affectionate son, [illegible] with a more cheerful industry [illegible] husband she was not only the truest [illegible] but the wise counselor His heart [illegible] centered in her, while to her children [illegible] devotion was such that after the lapse [illegible] century those of them who survive [illegible] her blessed.

[illegible] fourteen years' service at Haddam, [illegible] was called to Stockbridge, Mass. [illegible] full picture of their domestic life [illegible] been drawn by Henry M Field [illegible] family historian already quoted Its [illegible] no crime from the unaffected piety [illegible] Saturday evening was [illegible] strict Puritan fashion. As the sun [illegible] Dr Field gave the solemn admonition "My sons, we are on the borders of [illegible]" At sunset all labor was suspended for twenty four hours. There was [illegible] and prayer and devout meditation. [illegible] other boys, with pulses leaping [illegible] vitality, they waited anxiously [illegible] of the Sabbath. They watched [illegible] sink in the west, and bounded off as soon as the orb was below the [illegible] It required strict economy and [illegible] of self sacrifice to send four sons to [illegible], but this great object was accomplished and the boys were turned out to [illegible] world well equipped to battle with its [illegible] and overcome its difficulties. How [illegible] succeeded is known to every American. One achieved high honors on the [illegible] of the supreme court, another simplified and codified the laws of his native [illegible] and gave impetus to law reform [illegible] a third, the one whose old age has saddened by disaster, won undying [illegible] as the father of ocean telegraphy [illegible] the fourth attained prominence [illegible] in the ministry and theologian

[illegible] trace the influence of their simple life in the career of each of those [illegible] Each had pluck and perseverance [illegible] of strict honor and [illegible] uprightness and fair dealing [illegible] training fitted them to wrestle [illegible] with the difficulties of the world, [illegible] of advantages honorably and [illegible] won was marked with wisdom [illegible] discretion and benevolence. No [illegible] influence of the splendid influence of [illegible] is needed than the career of the boys for in each was the mark of [illegible] reverence and virtue softened by [illegible] early of more modern belief, [illegible] have the higher attributes of [illegible] more markedly illustrated [illegible] Cyrus W Field, who a recent [illegible] called forth this brief review [illegible] family

Cripple Creek Consolidated

The Cripple Creek Consolidated Mining Company has issued a circular setting forth its objects and intentions As the matter is of considerable interest to many of THE GAZETTE readers we print the circular as follows

OFFICE OF THE
CRIPPLE CREEK CONSOLIDATED MINING COMPANY

To the miners of Cripple Creek

It is the history of every mining camp that it suffers for want of capital Many men after having located their claims find that the first assessment work is the only one they can perform, and it is further work Many claims are abandoned or lapsed for not more than one year because the owners are unable to raise the money to pay the assessment

On the other hand there are many people who would like to be interested in promising mining camps but who are unwilling to pay to secure property or to assume the trouble and responsibility of its management

In order to bring relief to all these classes and more particularly to contribute to the prosperity of the camp of Cripple Creek Mining Camp some responsible gentlemen of Colorado Springs have organized The Cripple Creek Consolidated Mining company It is capitalized at $5,000,000 two million shares at one dollar per share The founders have a number have purchased 180,000 shares the money to be used for incorporation and other necessary expenses of organization Of the remaining one million eight hundred and twenty thousand (1,820,000) shares a part will be exchanged for mining properties in Cripple Creek which have favorably reported on by an expert of the company The balance of the stock will be held in the treasury to be used for the development of the company's mining properties the erection of stamp mills, etc

In this way each mine owner who obtains stock in this company will get a proportionate interest in every other mine belonging to the company and thus the risk of mining will be greatly lessened By this means the mines of the company will receive simultaneous development, thus adding to the reputation of the camp and to the profits of the stockholders. Under this system many people can acquire a small or large interest in "Cripple Creek" and will obtain an interest in so many mines that one or the other is likely to prove profitable and to repay handsome dividends

The organizers of "The Cripple Creek Consolidated Mining Company are actuated by no merely selfish interests They are working for the good of Cripple Creek as being a part of El Paso county. Everything in connection with the company will be done strictly for the best interests of the stockholders. They think that this stock can and will be made valuable

If you have any interests in "Cripple Creek" which you would like to consolidate in this company, or if you desire any further information on the subject, add ress the secretary of the company, or call at the company's office, 317 Pike's Peak avenue, Colorado Springs, Colorado

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Gymnasium class to-night at 8 o'clock. All young men who are members who wish to benefit themselves by a systematic course of exercises in dumb bells and Indian club movements should be present. Visitors are welcome

Several times during the week the reading room has had so many in it at one time that chairs were at a premium That's all right, young men, don't stay away for fear you will have to stand up. The Association will try and provide chairs enough for all who will come

The following papers and magazines, which is a partial list of what is found in the reading room should commend the association reading room to every thoughtful man who loves good reading, and who has a few spare moments each day The Independent, The Nation, Christian Union Scientific American, Harpers Weekly, Forum, North American Review, Popular Science Monthly, Harpers Monthly, Century, Scribner's, and the Denver dailies also the dailies of this city The association would especially like to add to this list the following Magazine of American History, Public Opinion, Outing, Cosmopolitan, Frank Leslie's Weekly, Chicago Daily Inter Ocean, and dailies from New York Boston, St. Louis and San Francisco Christmas is coming, and a year's subscription to any of the above mentioned or any other good paper or magazine would be a very acceptable gift and one that would be of inestimable benefit to scores of young men

W C T U Convention

The W C T U of El Paso county will meet in convention at Colorado City in the W C T U hall to-day Following is the programme

2.00 p. m.—Bible reading by Mrs. H Steffor
2.30 p. m.—Reports
2.45 p. m.—Parliamentary drill by Mrs. Hewitt
3.15 p. m.—Kindergarten work for mothers by Miss Vail
4.30 p. m.—Exercises by the Loyal Union of Colorado City

Evening exercises will be in charge of the Y W C T U of Colorado Springs. Music by the Good Templars of Colorado City

Mr S M Sayford who is to conduct the Evangelistic services in which the two Congregational and Presbyterian churches of this city unite will probably arrive here Friday afternoon of this week The Y M C A, and Y W C A of Colorado college will give him a reception Saturday evening at Montgomery hall It is expected that he will preach at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning and at the First Congregational church Sunday evening The union evangelistic services are expected to begin in the First Congregational church next Monday evening

COLORADO COLLEGE

[illegible]

The prize drill was the most interesting [illegible] last week and the [illegible] was filled to the [illegible] When drill will this being their first appearance under [illegible] turning every [illegible] the members of the company were [illegible] throughout after [illegible] drill [illegible] catching of catch commands The whole company showed itself to be especially proficient in the manual of arms but the limited area of the gymnasium floor did not allow much room for the execution of field movements

On Monday and Tuesday of the present week Monument creek for a stretch of about a mile commencing back of the college buildings and stretching toward the north afforded excellent skating and a number availed themselves of the opportunity for a glide Wednesday, however with its bright sun and warm weather spoiled all the ice and all the fun

Carpenters have been at work on the gym and have rendered it a much more suitable and enduring building than before It was quite badly racked by recent winds, and it was found necessary to do considerable bracing

The first monthly prize shooting match of the cadets will occur tomorrow afternoon, but owing to a delay in the arrival of ammunition it has been postponed for one week

This afternoon is to occur a foot ball game between the second eleven, and the "H H H H" team composed from residents of Hagerman hall.

Preparations are in order for the second annual ball of the Colorado college cadets, which is to occur sometime during the Christmas vacation with the date yet to be fixed

The College hose company holds its regular meeting at the company's rooms to-morrow night at 7.30

The Phœnix to-night presents an interesting programme and its doors are open to all The following programme will be carried out

Critique	Mr. Lee Watson
Music	Miss Logan
Declamation	Miss E. R. Snell
Essay	Mr Westfall Wilson

Address from a member of last year class

Music	Miss Trill
Debate—Question Resolved, that contract labor in the state prisons should be abolished
Affirmative	Mr. Rees Wilson
Negative	Mr. C. M. Estey

At the Apollonian's recent election Mr W F Matchett was chosen as president of the club

Several of the students who reside in the state will spend the Christmas vacation at their homes.

Dr Black spoke in the chapel Tuesday morning on the subject of motives. Likeness to Christ, he named as the highest motive, followed by love, honor, duty and fear No action, he said, was the result of one motive alone but of a combination of motives. The talk was very instructive.

With Captain Goodale's departure for West Point, which is soon to occur, the cadets will find themselves without a head Two or three names are prominently mentioned for the office, but who will be the next captain is as yet a matter of speculation.

Rev Mr Sayford the evangelist who is to conduct services at several of the churches during the winter, will also make a number of addresses at the college, and will hold special services under the auspices of the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian associations

A large audience greeted Dr Kennard at the Baptist church again last night. His theme was "The Prodigal Son," and his treatment of it was such as to make the familiar story seem new The sinful waste of the reckless young man is a representation of our waste of what God has given us. For whatever is not devoted to its proper purpose is wasted If then we are not devoting our lives to God's service, their appointed purpose we are again wasting them Three were baptised and several rose for prayer

A suit was started in the district court yesterday entitled Deborah C. Bennett vs D, & R. G railroad to recover $5,000 for the loss of her child, Samuel Bennett It will be remembered that the young boy was run over and killed near the D & R. G freight depot about eighteen months ago and the complainant alleges that the train was running at a rate of over eight miles an hour at the time of the accident. There has been a good deal of talk regarding a suit but it has never been started until yesterday J K Vannatta, of Colorado City, is Mrs. Bennett's attorney

W F Terrill came down from Cripple Creek yesterday and reports very lively times in the mining camp Some rich discoveries have been reported recently, and several quite large sales. Two newspapers have made their appearance the past week The Crusher and The Prospector and both are bright and newsy sheets Several new lines of business will be established at the camp soon. There will be a number of general stores, a bakery several hotels and boarding houses a meat market assay offices and real estate offices Mr Terrill came over the Cheyenne road and says he found it in much better condition than he expected He thinks Colorado Springs business men will serve their interests by attending to the matter of communication between the two places at once

The Old Homestead

The famous play of Denman Thompson will be seen at the Opera house tomorrow evening and from all appearances the greeting will be even more enthusiastic and to larger audiences than on the last visit Well it is not to be wondered at when the beauties of the entertainment are remembered especially by those who saw the piece until it has seen it time and time again as often as it has been presented Here

Interest in the play seems not to diminish or its popularity lessened It represents but is even more agreeable than after by all lovers of pure amusement for its relief from the sanctimonious of the most of entertainments offered the public during the season

One of the most favorite waves of speaking of The Old Homestead is its style it plays of the hearth the home and the heart and what there is left Lay fields and Lost risbuts of the first act or the log fire and homes winter appearance and in door comfort of the last scene the result is certainly the same a suggestion of life may be happier days of honesty and rugged strength of home and tender hearts of manly heartiness and womanly worth and something in the whole that appeals to the restful senses

People are rolling into Cripple Creek from every direction it is said On Wednesday it was impossible to get conveyances for everybody out of Florissant who came in on the railroad and desired to reach the camp Nineteen covered wagons went in through Florissant on Wednesday

Commencing Sunday November 15th, a Wabash Through Pullman Car service was inaugurated in connection with the "Rock Island" from Denver Colorado Springs Pueblo and other Colorado points, to St. Louis. These Pullmans are of the newest and choicest design and will leave Denver daily on "Rock Island No. 42, 8 10 p. m. arriving at St Louis at 7 o'clock on the second morning, at which point direct connections will be made in Union Depot with limited trains for all points east, south and southeast.

Remember only one change of cars from Denver to New York Boston and other far eastern points. Sleeping berths can be secured by addressing C. M HAMPSON
City Ticket Agent 1727 17th St., Denver, Colo.

Attention is called to a change in the Santa Fe time table taking effect to-day, by which two additional trains are put on between Colorado Springs and Denver

THE FINEST TRAIN SERVICE

Fast via the Great Rock Island Route is unexcelled by any for comfort, safety and speed While traveling choose the Great Rock Island

CHEAP RATES SOUTH.

The Missouri Pacific Railway Company are offering greatly reduced rates for the round trip to South Winter resorts Ask any agent for railway ticket agent for round trip tickets into the "Sunny South" over the ever popular Missouri Pacific Railway whose train service out of Colorado is the shortest and only direct through line into Texas Arkansas Mississippi Tennessee Missouri, Alabama, Florida Kansas and Mexico. C. A. SHIPP
General Western Agent, Denver Colo.

A DAY IN DENVER.

In order to accommodate the Santa Fe trains at 4 45 or 8.05 a. m which will give you almost the whole day in Denver Trains returning leave at 3.40 and 7.30 and 11.30 p m

Trains leaving at 3.15 p. m. on the Santa Fe going east, now carries through Parlor Chair cars between Pueblo and Chicago, also a Chair Car between Denver and Canon City

CALIFORNIA EXCURSIONS

Leave Chicago via the Santa Fe Route every Thursday evening at 7.30 and Kansas City every Friday evening at 11.55 and arrive at La Junta Saturday morning at 9.25 Parties from Colorado Springs desiring to join the train leave at 7.25 p. m., each Friday remaining at La Junta overnight and breakfast at 8.40 a. m Saturday making connection at La Junta the same morning These excursions are personally conducted by salaried agents who conduct the excursions to destination to give personal attention to the comfort of passengers, especially aged persons, ladies and children without escort. Leaving Colorado Springs at 2.40 a m Saturday, the passengers will arrive at Los Angeles at 2.45 p m the following Monday and at San Diego at 8.25 p. m at San Francisco the following Tuesday at 11.35 a. m Inquire at city ticket office, Opera House block

PARLOR CARS.

Our citizens who have not tried the new parlor cars on the afternoon Santa Fe trains should do so The cars are veritable parlors and the chairs as comfortable as the finest parlor chair, not to be compared with the ordinary chair cars something entirely new Trains leaving there leave for Pueblo at 2.15 p. m. and for Denver at 3.20 p m

BEAUTIFUL OKLAHOMA

The exciting incidents of the two great invasions of Oklahoma territory by home seekers April 22, 1889 and September 22nd 1891 have given that section world prominence as a place in which to cheaply obtain one of Uncle Sam's farms The lands recently opened are located in the Old Iowa, Sac and Fox and Potawatomie reservations lying directly east of Guthrie and Oklahoma City on the C T A S F R. R They now constitute counties [illegible] and [illegible] with Chandler and Tecumseh as respective county seats—both large and rapidly advancing towns. Claims can be bought at reasonable figures. For the raising of corn, cotton, wheat and fruit, Oklahoma is unexcelled

THE GAZETTE.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1896.

The football club is talking of playing a game at Pueblo some time next week.

A marriage license was granted Lee Reed and Miss Dora Hunn yesterday, young colored people

There will be a very important meeting of Camp 25, P O S of A, this evening at 7 30 All members should be present.

A dancing class of the young people of the city has been formed to meet Wednesday evenings of each week with Mrs. Whitbeck

Mrs. J M Ellison left on the Midland Pacific train yesterday for the east having been called away by the serious illness of her mother

Mr John J Irvin of New York president of Colorado Springs two years ago but for some time stopping in California has returned for the winter

Rev L J Sandquist from Pueblo will preach to night in the Swedish language at the United Presbyterian church All Scandinavians are invited

There have been fifty patients admitted to Bellevue sanitarium during the year just closing After practically all these have left the health resort to resume their former vocations

Mrs. Whitbeck has decided that the Friday evening assemblies begun in the early part of the season do not promote the interests of her large dancing classes to any extent and will discontinue them hereafter

There will be a race this afternoon at Perry Johnson's track at 2 o clock, between W. B Foster's horse "Flaxy" and "Mick," a horse owned by Mr Cole of Eastonville The race is a quarter mile dash for $100 a side

Mr James Rowan chief of police of Aspen, made a short stop in the city yesterday while en route to Denver Other Aspen men in the city were J H. Walters, Midland agent, and Chas Miller a well known mining man Stated communication of El Paso lodge, No. 13, A F and A M, to-night at 7:30 sharp. It is important that all members be present. Annual election of officers for the ensuing year. All visiting brothers cordially invited.

A party that left for Cripple Creek last evening was composed of County-commissioner Plumb, Police judge Kinsley, County-clerk Howbert and County-surveyor-elect Durfee The gentlemen are interested in Fremont town site

The ladies of St. Andrews Guild at Manitou will give a Christmas party at Wheeler hall next Monday evening. Dancing and refreshments will be the order of the evening. An admission fee of one dollar will be charged, and there should be a good attendance from this city.

The fruits of advertising Colorado Springs as a winter resort are beginning to be felt already. The secretary of the board of commerce receives on an average fifteen letters of inquiry a day regarding Colorado Springs. The second edition of the pamphlet, "Facts Medical and General," numbering 5000 copies, has nearly all been distributed The hotels of the city are all filling up with winter visitors. The Antlers has more permanent winter boarders than ever before, and on Wednesday night only had two vacant rooms in the house
